

Table 1

Vol/ Nr	Topic
8-4	German settlement of Louisiana
8-5	HETRINA, regarding Hessian soldiers
9-2	medical terms, part 1
9-3	Germans in New Jersey
9-3	Hoenstine Library in Hollidaysburg, Blair County, Pennsylvania
9-3	Shirley Riemer's travel tips for East Germany (1992)
9-3	medical terms, part 2
9-4	nobility
9-4	medical terms, part 3
9-4	Sutro Library
10-1	Gottschee
10-1	Pennsylvania German name variations, penultimate part (but see complete set of articles under GER-NAM shelving)
10-2	Union & Confederate Civil War regiments with predominantly German troops
10-2	old medical terms - vocabulary list
10-2	Pennsylvania German name variations, last part (but see complete set of articles under GER-NAM shelving)
10-3	myth of the US vote on national language, English or German
10-3	Alsatian documents
10-3	old medical terms - vocabulary list
10-4	church records & using parish inventories
10-4	profile of IGS
10-4	Matrikel/matriculation registers, including those held in US libraries
11-1	using Ahnenlisten-Kartei
11-1	using the new German ZIP-code books
11-1	surnames mentioned in "Die Deutschen von Iowa"
11-2	guide to resources in Columbus, Ohio
11-3	Berlin Document Center [in The Week in Germany section] (see also 12-2)
11-4	the background of Hambacher Fest
11-4	Haller's book on German & Swiss immigrants to America
12-1	notes on Ahnenstammkartei (ASTAKA) & Ahnenlisten-Kartei
12-1	Namenskarteien background
12-1	German research resources - vocabulary
12-1	births, baptisms, guardianships - vocabulary
12-2	Berlin Document Center
12-2	Swiss research
12-2	West Virginia regional history collection
12-2	Ernest Thode on searching for places of origin
12-2	death records - vocabulary

Vol/ Nr	Topic
12-3	census page abbreviations
12-3	family relationships - vocabulary
12-3	Palatines
12-3	Germans from Russia
12-3	East European Germans
12-3	Annette Kunselmann Burgert
12-3	Germans in Louisiana
12-3	Alsace-Lorraine
12-4	finding the place of origin in Pennsylvania land records - focus on squatters
12-4	PERSI for German genealogy
13-1	German Handshake Packet
13-1	emigration records -vocabulary
13-2	York County, Pennsylvania resources bibliography
13-2	Eastern European research areas
13-2	Bavaria
13-2	HETRINA, regarding Hessian soldiers
13-3	Bohemian Germans
13-3	Black Germans
13-3	Ahnenpass records
13-3	emigration of Salzburgers to Georgia
13-4	Deutsches Biographisches Archiv
14-1	Ahnenstammkartei (ASTAKA) introduction
14-1	Matrikel/matriculation registers in Leipzig
14-1	regional libraries
14-1	Die Deutsche Bibliothek
14-1	guide to maps
14-1	marriage records - vocabulary
14-2	bibliography on German newspapers, 1780-1914
14-2	article on German newspapers by Friedrich Wollmershäuser
14-2	how to use a German ZIP-code book
14-3	Prussia's encirclement prior to the Seven Years' War - map
14-3	how to preserve your genealogy research upon your death
14-3	name days, mostly a Catholic observance
14-3	postal ZIP-code conversion
14-3	Bukovina Germans in Kansas
14-3	list of immigrant aid societies
15-1	German manners
15-1	lexicon of Saxony & Thuringia, 1820s

Vol/ Nr	Topic
15-1	German expressions regarding luck
15-3	the revolution of 1848, and <10,000 '48er emigrants
15-3	German dialects & High German
15-3	Meyer's/Pierer's Konversations Lexikon, 1880s
15-3	Handbuch der historischen Stätten Deutschlands, 1970s
15-4	where to look for clues in the US censuses, 1850-1920
15-4	(several) articles on culture
16-1	list of emigrants from old Hannover, by NSHA
16-1	Familienkundliche Nachrichten (FaNa) success story
16-1	FHL lists of emigration from Brandenburg
16-1	"Faulheitsstrich," the lazy dash and its usage
16-1	a history of the DPL at IGS
16-2	emigration to America, part 1 (in the port of departure)
16-2	research at the Evangelische Zentralarchiv, Berlin
16-2	guide to Civil War draft records & their information
16-3	emigration to America, part 2 (at sea)
16-3	holidays and observances
16-3	some history of Schaumburg-Lippe and Bückeburg
16-3	Taschenbuch für Familiengeschichtsforschung
16-4	emigration to America, part 3 (ashore)
16-4	Danish genealogical records & Schleswig-Holstein
16-4	German emigration records
16-4	GRA's project Re: missing passengers in Glazer & Filby's "Germans to America," vols. 1 to 9
16-4	definition of the word "Colon" (meaning a farmer of a certain type)
17-1	Familienkundliche Nachrichten (FaNa)
17-1	Institute for Migration and Ancestral Research (IMAR)
17-1	definitions of words for "farmer" (see also "Colon" definition)
17-1	12 pitfalls to be aware of in "Germans to America"
17-2	Hermann, Missouri
17-2	a sample book plan for telling an immigrant's story
17-2	Gregorian calendar beginning dates, by city and region
17-2	listing of selected historical events, for reference
17-3	TP Research firm recommended for Americans researching German-Czech families
17-3	list of key German research publications
17-3	list of settlers at Hermann, Missouri
17-3	survey of records at Landesarchiv Speyer
17-3	subject listing of back issues to date
17-4	"Evangelische Union" churches in Germany

Vol/ Nr	Topic
17-4	German expressions regarding the senses
17-4	history of illegitimacy in Brunswick
18-1	a Wanderbuch from Württemberg, 1830s
18-2	civil marriage records in mid-19th c. Alsace
18-2	CD-ROM of the Genealogical Library Master Catalog
18-3	Castle Garden
18-3	typical immigrant documents
18-4	German cradle songs (esp. those carrying political meaning)
18-4	the German national anthem
19-1	myth of Ellis Island name changes
19-2	Institut für pfälzische Geschichte und Volkskunde, Kaiserslautern
19-2	research strategy for a visit to Germany
19-2	16th c. Germany, part 1
19-2	marriage contracts as a record source
19-2	family record symbols
19-3	16th c. Germany, part 2
19-3	IBIS for German books purchased by (& delivered to) Americans
19-3	Shirley Riemer, on how to think about finding a place of origin
19-3	Melderegister entries
19-4	German immigrants write home....
19-4	village trades, late 18th c.
20-1	a Thuringian Seelenregister
20-1	Niedersachsen emigrant database < www.staatsarchiv.niedersachsen.de > (Auswanderer Quellen)
20-1	BYU's "Immigrant Ancestors Project" & "The Palatine Project"
20-1	emigration sources, 18th c.
20-2	Swiss parish censuses
20-2	Roger Minert's account of an archives visit in Germany
20-2	Bahlow's Dictionary of German Names
20-2	Roger Minert's interview on "emigration myths"
20-3	"Quick and Easy Look-ups from the IGS Library" (2003)
20-3	HETRINA, regarding Hessian soldiers
20-3	St. Louis, Missouri in the 1860 census
20-3	Roger Minert's bibliography of church record inventories
20-3	Waldsee, a German language immersion summer camp for kids
20-3	a sample of "business cards" for visits to Germany
20-4	emigration from Westfalen
20-4	Roger Minert on typical results of an unscheduled research trip to Germany
20-4	immigration dates by country, and their rough causes

Vol/ Nr	Topic
20-4	Henriette Davidis' cook books for German-American women
21-1	FamilySearch "Research Guidance"
21-1	IGS seminar at Magnolia Park UMC, 2828 W. Magnolia
21-1	April 2003 seminar attendee name submissions
21-2	notes on Alsace
21-2	understanding map scales
21-3	a "take-along history" as a suggestion for research visits
21-4	Hamburg passenger lists
21-4	FamilySearch research outlines
22-1	how the Civil Registry office works
22-1	list of emigration databases
22-1	terms to be used in German search engines
22-1	Baerbel Johnson's list of German internet URL's (2004)
22-1	May 2004 seminar attendee name submissions
22-2	Walpurgis-Nacht
22-2	gift suggestions for researchers visiting Germany
22-2	passenger list research
22-2	the Brothers Grimm dictionary online
22-2	dates marking the start of German Protestant & Catholic church records
22-3	useful resources for German research
22-3	questions for prospective professional researchers
22-4	Hamburg police records
22-4	FaNa at IGS
22-4	gazetteers for Central and Eastern Europe
22-4	Germanic language sound shifts
23-1	German military records
23-1	historic-to-modern currency conversion
23-1	history of various German states (in both German and English)
23-1	April 2005 seminar attendee name submissions
23-2	where-to-find-it guide based upon 13 major reference works in German genealogy
23-2	Shirley Riemer's 48 questions to ask when searching for a place name (with explanations)
23-2	Roger Minert's coordinated schedules for "Germans to America" and the Hamburg passenger lists
23-2	background historic information about German schools
23-2	historical information on the "dollar" and "thaler"
23-2	the German introduction of Christmas to America
23-3	things to know about calendars, and German expressions for historical time & eras - vocabulary
23-3	The Habsburg Dynasty
23-3	Familienkundliche Nachrichten (FaNa) query service of Verlag Degener, with IGS indexes

Vol/ Nr	Topic
23-3	German, Latin, and dialect words/phrases related to time - vocabulary
23-3	Chicago's German newspapers, 1870s
23-4	how to prepare to research your German ancestor's US settlement town
23-4	German administrative terms - vocabulary
23-4	introduction to Roger Minert's series on "German Immigrants in American Church Records"
23-4	National Geographic's Genographic Project (2006)
23-4	European port cities
23-4	what the US census provides in emigration/immigration information, year-by-year
24-1	"Meyers Orts"
24-1	how to read old date-markers on houses
24-1	provincial websites of Evangelical Lutheran Churches
24-1	notice in Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter of migration trend from microforms to digital (2006) — see also 24-2
24-1	traditional method for deciphering a mysterious German town name, using Meyers Orts
24-1	April 2006 seminar attendee name submissions
24-2	comparison of Franklin's "Join, or Die" poster with Hoffmann's "Das Lied der Deutschen" (national anthem)
24-2	example of how one traces descendants of immigrants
24-2	sample letter, introducing oneself to a stranger as their relative
24-2	importance of searching for "your" German town's collector of local family history information
24-2	Berks County, Pennsylvania surnames matched to German home towns
24-2	online listing of Schleswig-Holstein immigrants to Scott County, Iowa
24-2	list of basic research tools for German family historians
24-2	Family History Library converting to digital — see also 24-1
24-3	history of the German civil code, the Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch
24-3	German naming patterns
24-3	symbols and abbreviations used in German records
24-3	Roger Minert's selected bibliography of church record inventories
24-3	a timeline for Americans of German descent
24-4	interpreting feast day records and converting to the modern calendar
24-4	the term "Holländer" & what it denotes
24-4	Ortssippenbücher explained
24-4	punishment of illegitimate births, and evidence in christening records
24-4	historical background of town markets
25-1	meaning and importance of the word "Heimat"
25-1	"German Genealogy Tools Basic to our Research Efforts" — 22 sources, and similar to previous lists
25-1	"An Umbrella of Facts Covering German Immigration"
25-1	guide to four regions along the Rhine River, with maps
25-1	comparison of four language-translation websites (2007)
25-1	reading descriptions &amp; titles in German documents — vocabulary

Vol/ Nr	Topic
25-1	April 2007 seminar attendee name submissions
25-2	“consonant shifts” in German explained, with examples
25-2	“German Town Genealogies”: Ortssippenbücher u.s.w.
25-2	innovations at the Family History Library (including patron consultations)
25-2	how to make diacritics (e.g., Ä, ä, ñ, ç; u.s.w.) with the PC’s 10-key keypad
25-2	bibliography from the Library of Congress on resources related to “German Immigrant Arrivals”
25-2	71 “tips” for extending your research with faced with a “brick wall” in German genealogy
25-2	emigration database maintained by the Ostfriesland Genealogical Society of America
25-3	how to use the “German Genealogy Tools” (25-1) to research a faultily copied German village name
25-3	guide to the US census, updated for the 1940 census
25-3	list of years of indexed passenger lists for ports of Baltimore, Boston, New Orleans, New York, and Philadelphia
25-4	“What’s a Palatine?”
25-4	researcher Andrea Bentschneider
26-1	German document abbreviations
26-1	Q & A about corresponding with Germans (if you don’t know German)
26-1	German Trachten , including a map of the distinct Trachten regions surrounding Minden & info on Rotkäppchen of Hesse
26-1	April 2008 seminar attendee name submissions
26-2	farm names explained
26-2	BYU Family History Archive < www.lib.byu.edu/fhc >
26-2	gazetteers, including those online
26-2	Protestant Church Archives in Kassel
26-2	on German military records
26-2	indexing — a comparison of FamilySearch & ancestry.com (2008)
26-3	the life of the journeyman on Wanderschaft - vocabulary
26-3	more on Roger Minert’s Coordinated Shedules of “Germans to America” &amp; the Hamburg passenger lists
26-3	an example of how to analyze conflicting information on an immigrant
26-3	death and mourning in Germany - vocabulary & expressions
26-3	Hamburg police records
26-4	German town “anniversary books”
26-4	understanding the component parts of the Second German Empire
26-4	German linenweavers, the poorest of the working poor
27-1	Der Blumenbaum “Combined Indexes” (2009)
27-1	German guild records ( Zunftbücher )
27-1	Family History Library summary of church record holdings, by percentage coverages
27-1	April 2009 seminar attendee name submissions
27-2	glossary of word roots, prefixes and suffixes in German genealogy — vocabulary
27-2	reading the Ahnenpass
27-2	emigrant information for Hamburg, Bremen, Antwerp, LeHavre & other ports